

Overseas Travel Risks

(Risk Briefing & Practical Training)

ARIS MEDICAL was set up in the year 2009 providing Medical Services which include Medical Flights and Emergency Evacuation both Overseas and Locally. Our team consists of Medical Doctors, ex-995 Paramedics and Risk Specialists that focus on skills sets ranging from risk planning to life-saving practical.

info@aris-im.com
Office: 64624043

Facilities for added
Experiential learning

Objectives: This Course will equip participants with the knowledge and skills to manage incident while overseas. The speaker will be sharing different types of risks and ground preparations needed to prepare participants on the dos and don'ts during their travels abroad.

Who Should Attend:

- Teachers
- Administrator for Travel Groups
- Student Leaders
- Student Groups travelling
- Parents

Safety and Risks Practical: Setting up safety protocols with the correct methods. Provide standards steps to develop team mechanics and formation of incident cards to let students' travelers know their boundaries

Assessment: Participants will tasked with a practical scenario and will need to apply what they have learned in order to past the test.

ARIS classroom with capabilities to provide multifaceted trainings to improve experience and capabilities.

Note: Our Team can train in designated venues as well.